Dominion Due Diligence Group, Inc. is Bronze Sponsor for the Alpha Summit for Real Estate Finance and Development in Minority Communities

August 9, 2024

Dominion Due Diligence Group today announced its sponsorship in support of the Alpha Summit on Real Estate Finance and Development (Alpha Summit – alpharealestatesummit.com). The Alpha Summit is a workshop-driven conference designed to strengthening the capacity of the summit participants, primarily minority and female entrepreneurs to be successful in their real estate development or finance business either on an individual basis or on a collaborative or institutional basis; networking and business development; and knowledge-sharing on opportunities and emerging trends in real estate financing and development.

This Alpha Summit will be held November 14-16th, 2024, in Charlotte, North Carolina. The inaugural Alpha Summit was held last January in Nashville and attracted over 250 participants from across the country with over thirty speakers. The Alpha Summit is the brainchild and is being organized by three minority firms with significant background, expertise and success in development, urban planning, development finance and other elements related to community development and affordable housing. The November 14-16th Alpha Summit in Charlotte is expected to attract 300+ participants and over thirty (30) speakers and presenters. The Summit is open to all people regardless of their level of expertise or experience.

Dominion Due Diligence Group (d3g.com) is the nation's leading full-service environmental, engineering, and energy due diligence firm with an emphasis in creating innovative solutions to our nation's largest challenges with affordable housing.

Rob Hazelton, Owner & Chief Executive Officer of Dominion Due Diligence Group navigates Dominion's work in affordable housing, public housing, senior housing, homelessness prevention, housing for people with disabilities, and most recently foster-care housing initiatives. Mr. Hazelton stated that "Dominion Due Diligence Group is proud to support the Alpha Summit" and that the "Summit aligns with the Dominion's overarching goal of equity and inclusion and assisting in the rebuilding of distressed minority communities."

"Dominion Due Diligence Group is absolutely dedicated to creating solutions to the myriad of challenges of redevelopment of low- and moderate-income and minority communities" stated Arthur L. Fleming, Principal of Fleming Connections, LLC., one of the organizers of the Summit.

Dominion Due Diligence Group's CEO and founder, Rob Hazeleton, is a national expert in dissecting the difficult and convoluted environmental processes related to HUD, housing, tax credits, and leveraged finance transactions. Rob will participate as a presenter at the Alpha Summit.

"Dominion Due Diligence was a partner in the inaugural Alpha Summit, and we are absolutely thrilled and honored they made the decision to partner with the Alpha Summit in Charlotte in November" stated Arthur L. Fleming, Principal of Fleming Connections, LLC., one of the organizers of the Summit.
