Haltere Group is a Title Partner for the Alpha Summit for Real Estate Finance and Development in Minority Communities

August 9, 2024

The Haltere Group today announced its sponsorship in support of the Alpha Summit on Real Estate Finance and Development (Alpha Summit – alpharealestatesummit.com). The Alpha Summit is a workshop-driven conference designed to strengthening the capacity of the summit participants, primarily minority and female entrepreneurs to be successful in their real estate development or finance business either on an individual basis or on a collaborative or institutional basis; networking and business development; and knowledge-sharing on opportunities and emerging trends in real estate financing and development.

This Alpha Summit will be held November 14-16, 2024, in Charlotte, North Carolina. The inaugural Alpha Summit was held last January in Nashville and attracted over 250 participants from across the country with over thirty speakers. The Alpha Summit is the brainchild and is being organized by three minority firms with significant background, expertise and success in development, urban planning, development finance and other elements related to community development and affordable housing. The November 14-16 Alpha Summit in Charlotte is expected to attract 300+ participants and over thirty (30) speakers and presenters. The Summit is open to all people regardless of their level of expertise or experience.

The Haltere Group (Haltere Group | Residential and Commercial Real Estate – Investing with Growth and Excellence in Mind) is a mission-driven real estate investment company that invests in commercial multi-family properties and developing communities across the United States. With a collective 60+ years of real estate investment and operational experience, and over $25 Billion in global real estate transactions, Haltere’s leadership consists of highly adept professionals who are experts in their fields.

Dennis Earls, Chairman and CEO; Damon Hawkins, VP of Acquisitions; and Mikael Pyles, VP will all participate as presenters at the Alpha Summit.

Dennis Earls stated that “The Haltere Group is proud to support the Alpha Summit” and that the “Summit aligns with the business interest of Haltere initiatives in the investment and rebuilding of distressed minority communities across the country.”

“Haltere Group is absolutely dedicated to partnering with minority developers in the rebuilding of our communities and in providing a platform for investors” stated Arthur L. Fleming, Principal of Fleming Connections, LLC., one of the organizers of the Summit. “We are extremely happy and excited about Haltere Group’s participation at the Alpha Summit.”
